CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FOREIGNERS 2024

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs (SRE), through the Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation (AMEXCID), has developed a scholarship program aimed at contributing to the sustainable development of nations, fulfilling objectives and commitments adopted in international agendas, and addressing effectively shared global challenges through the formation of human capital of excellence, providing access to quality, inclusive, and equitable education.

This Call for Applications is open to foreign individuals interested in pursuing studies in Mexico from more than 180 countries in accordance with diplomatic relations, bilateral legal frameworks, multilateral mechanisms, and special agreements.

Over 90 Mexican Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) are participating in this edition.

The development of this Call for Applications offers the opportunity to carry out student exchanges, fostering academic and cultural integration among partner countries and Mexico.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation
AMEXCID

1) OBJECTIVE

Contribute to the development of high-level academic human capital by granting scholarships for full-time, on-site training programs in Mexico at the Master's and Doctoral levels, student mobility at the undergraduate and master's levels, as well as postgraduate research stays.

2) SCHOLARSHIP MODALITIES

| Modality | Maximum duration of scholarship award |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| Undergraduate mobility program | 24 months maximum |
| Master's level mobility program | 12 months maximum |
| Master's program | 24 months maximum |
| Doctoral program | 36 months maximum |
| Postgraduate research stays (master's, doctoral, and postdoctoral levels) | 12 months maximum |

- Scholarships are not granted for thesis work to obtain an academic degree.
- The scholarship is non-transferable and cannot be deferred to academic years beyond the period it was awarded.
- Once the scholarship is awarded, there will be no modifications or extensions to the periods established in the publication of results, nor will any changes in the academic program, institution, and/or research.

3) SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

AMEXCID will grant to the selected applicants:

- For Master's, undergraduate and Master's level mobility, and master's research scholarships, a monthly maintenance stipend of 4 (four) times the monthly value of the Unit of Measure and Update (UMA), currently equivalent to $13,202.12 (Thirteen thousand two hundred two pesos 12/100 M.N.) monthly. The Unit of Measure and Update (UMA) is subject to changes established by law (Maintenance is provided monthly in arrears).

2. For Doctoral scholarships and research stays at the doctoral and postdoctoral levels, the monthly maintenance stipend will be 5 (five) times the monthly value of the Unit of Measure and Update (UMA), currently equivalent to $16,502.65 (Sixteen thousand five hundred two 65/100 M.N.) monthly. The Unit of Measure and Update (UMA) is subject to changes established by law (Maintenance is provided monthly in arrears).
3. Enrollment and tuition fees, in accordance with the program established by each Mexican Educational Institution (Annex 1), and subject to the final decision of each institution, issued through the acceptance letter provided to each applicant.
4. Medical insurance through the Mexican Social Security Institute (IMSS). Validity begins from the seventh month of the scholarship, and lasts for a duration similar to the scholarship period granted. (Annex 2).
5. Exemption from the cost of issuing the Mexican visa.
6. International air transportation upon successful completion of the scholarship. The ticket will be provided in economy class and according to the flight route determined to be most convenient for AMEXCID. Please consult the list of countries eligible for this benefit (Annex 3).
7. National transportation. In the case of studying outside Mexico City, transportation will be covered from Mexico City to the host city of the receiving academic institution, and back to Mexico City upon completion of the scholarship period with satisfactory academic results. Only applies to national airfare or ground transportation. (Annex 4).
8. In all applicable cases, AMEXCID will purchase the airline ticket; any individual purchases will not be subject to reimbursement.
9. Any changes desired by the scholarship recipient to the airline ticket purchased by AMEXCID after its issuance will be covered by the individual.
10. If the national transportation provided is by land, the scholarship recipient must cover the bus fare and will be reimbursed the amount expended.
11. The administration and management of the aforementioned benefits will be handled by the Academic Exchange Directorate of AMEXCID and will be communicated to selected candidates before formalizing the scholarship.

10) SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection of candidates is made without distinction based on ethnic origin, gender, age, disabilities, social status, health conditions, religion, opinions or sexual preferences, marital status, or any other situation and/or condition that undermines human dignity and aims to nullify or diminish the rights and freedoms of individuals, and is subject to the following criteria:

1. Submission of all documents requested in this Call for Applications.
2. Academic excellence background of the applicant.
3. Preference will be given to applicants who have never received a scholarship from AMEXCID.
4. Priority will be given based on the order of registration of the application. (Preference will be given to applications registered first).

11) RESULTS

1. In accordance with the Calendar of this Call for Applications, the decision on the scholarship award will be communicated via email solely to the selected candidates by AMEXCID.
2. If AMEXCID does not receive a positive response accepting the scholarship from the selected candidate, AMEXCID may award the scholarship to another candidate who meets the required criteria.
3. Acceptance at any of the Higher Education Institutions participating in this Call for Applications does not guarantee the granting of a scholarship by the Mexican Government.
4. The final decision on the granting of scholarships lies solely with the Government of Mexico.
5. All decisions made during the selection process are final and cannot be appealed, therefore no responses will be provided regarding unsuccessful applications.
6. By registering on the platform (SIGCA), the applicant accepts the conditions of this call, as well as the processing of personal data in accordance with the General Law on the Protection of Personal Data Held by Obligated Subjects and the Federal Law on Transparency and Access to Public Information.

12) CONSIDERATIONS

1. Any expense not specified in this Call for Applications will not be covered or reimbursed by AMEXCID.
2. The selected candidate will receive instructions via email to initiate the process of formalizing the scholarship award. Failure to respond to communications within the specified timeframe may result in the cancellation of the scholarship award by AMEXCID, and another candidate may be selected.
3. The selected candidate must submit acceptance of the scholarship to AMEXCID to provide administrative support and adhere to the commitments of this Call for Applications.
4. If the selected candidate does not use the international air transportation service provided by AMEXCID, they may request reimbursement for the incurred expenses.
5. By accepting the scholarship, the selected candidate commits to comply with the "Applicable Rules for Foreign Scholarship Holders" (NABE'S), as well as any updates during the scholarship period.

6. If the selected candidate carries out a stay equal to or longer than 180 days, regardless of nationality, they must obtain the visa specified by the Academic Exchange Directorate at the Embassy or Representation of Mexico abroad.
7. The selected candidate must report to the offices of the Academic Exchange Directorate (DIA), located at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs - Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation, at Plaza Juárez No. 20, Ground Floor, Col. Centro, C.P. 06010, Mexico City, during office hours from 09:00 to 13:30 on business days, during the first 10 (ten) natural days of the first month of their scholarship, in accordance with the instructions of the Academic Exchange Directorate staff.
8. The selected candidate will be considered a scholarship holder only upon formal submission of documentation to the offices of the Academic Exchange Directorate, and will be subject to the commitments of this Call for Applications.

The scholarship recipient must cover their medical expenses if needed, therefore, it is recommended to acquire an international medical insurance policy that covers the period when they will not have access to medical services.

It is recommended that you have resources to cover your expenses for at least the first 60 days of your scholarship period.

13) TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. Any matter not covered in this Call will be solved by the officials of AMEXCID who have the authority to do so.
2. In case of force majeure preventing the granting of the scholarships in this Call, AMEXCID will notify the applicants about the situation, which will be final and unappealable.
3. The granting of the scholarships in this Call is subject to the budgetary availability of AMEXCID.
